

Discovery Developmental Center Video and Photo Release

Over the years, Discovery Developmental Center (DDC) has been involved with many promotional events for the organization itself and for early childhood in general that include pictures and/or video recordings of DDC children playing in the classroom or outdoors. In addition, technology and social media play a bigger role in today's world as a communication tool both within and outside the organization. Please carefully review the following and approve or decline where indicated giving us permission to utilize images of your child.
